

TEAM PLAYER – F/T or P/T, seasonal (Live in optional)

The Four Seasons is looking forward to its busiest summer season ever. We know it is going to be tough but bring on the challenge!

We are looking for “Team Players” who want to work and play hard. If you join our team you will find yourself working hours to suit, across all departments. Experience is not essential as on the job training will be available.

We can offer accommodation (single or couple) if required and during time off, you can participate in the numerous water sports in the area, play golf, cycle, hike, go-ape, or get to intimately know our local wildlife. The vision and ethos of The Four Seasons is about bringing the outside in and being in touch with nature. We want to make sure that our staff can benefit from that too!

If this sounds like what you are looking for, then we’d love to chat through your expectations and ambitions. We are happy to consider part-time or full-time applications as well as couples interested in applying for multiple positions.

Oh, and you must like dogs!

Team tasks include but are not limited to,

- FOH –
- Working as a team to keep standards of hygiene at the level expected
- Collaborating with colleagues to ensure an efficient, timely and polite service is provided to guests at all times throughout the front of house areas (restaurant, bar and shop)
- Positively engaging with guests to build memories

- BOH –
- Working as part of a team to achieve the highest standards of cleanliness throughout the hotel whilst supporting the housekeeping and kitchen teams’ delivery.

In return we will offer you,

- A pro-rata salary of up to £30,000 subject to hours and experience plus share of tips
- Hours up to 48 hours per week
- Statutory holiday entitlement to accrue whilst you are a team member. Holidays to be taken during the closed winter periods. Nov/Jan/Feb/Mar.
- A culture that is focused on ensuring a good work/life balance
- Team players discount and “friends & family rates”
- Meals whilst on duty
- Live in accommodation if required
- The opportunity to fit into a hardworking motivated team and generate outputs
- The opportunity to get/keep fit – we have a 2.5 acre estate!
- A uniform
- Support to develop a career in hospitality
